Good News!

All Social Emotional Learning (SEL) Units are now available in both English and Spanish at no cost!

GSN has undergone a large effort to improve our service offerings by translating our SEL units into Spanish, further advancing GSN's focus on equity. The materials, which feature teacher scripts as well as student activities (such as worksheets), are now available in our online store at NO COST to educators! If you'd like more information about implementing SEL in your classroom, sign up for our SEL specific newsletter here.

GSN Staff Gather for Spring Staff Meeting

GSN staff line up in order of Indigo survey results.

In May, the GSN team gathered for an in-person meeting to celebrate achievements of the past school year, welcome new team members, and enjoy the great outdoors. We look forward to serving our schools in the coming year with improved offerings and diversified staff, as well as our tried and true programs! To learn more about programs available to your school, contact Alison Lauge.

Cohort 6 of the Turnaround Leadership Program (TLP) Learns Keys to Coaching in Breckenridge!

TLP Team Members celebrate accomplishments and team together to learn new skills!

Cohort 6 of TLP, Las Animas and Wiggins, met for their second year in Breckenridge in early June. Educators and leaders came together to learn new ways to develop leadership skills within their schools from facilitator Denise Snowden of Coach to Lead. This was an interactive retreat that allowed educators to deep dive into how to incorporate key coaching skills into their school improvement initiatives in the coming years.

Welcoming New Staff!

Fumnanya Camara
Senior Education Specialist

Fumnanya serves as the Senior Education Specialist for the College and Career Readiness team at GSN. She supports the School to Work initiative designed to provide high-quality, zero-barrier college and career readiness programming to various schools and districts. Fumnanya has over ten years of experience working with diverse populations, including first-generation Americans, college students, and low-income individuals. She also has more than eight years of experience working directly with youth and adult refugees and immigrants. She is a licensed School counselor and has worked in P-8, middle school, high school, and college environments, as well as the Colorado Department of Education.

Erin Coker
Senior Education Specialist

Erin comes to GSN with a passion for coaching and mentoring. She has extensive experience with continuous improvement and school planning, interdisciplinary learning and literacy, and adult learning theory. Prior to joining GSN, Erin worked in Denver Public Schools for 15 years in a variety of leadership roles where she had the opportunity to directly support school instructional leadership teams. In addition to her work in DPS, Erin has worked as an education consultant where, on a national level, she has written curriculum and accompanying resources, facilitated scoring calibration events, and co-developed observational and planning tools for leaders and teachers. Erin is a values-driven and reflective leader of others and regards equity as a consistent and critical throughline in her work with schools. Erin holds a BS in Biology and a MA in Instructional Technology from Regis University.
